SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

Respected colleagues and dear friends!

A new big Congress on gynecological endocrinology, human reproduction and menopause is getting close!

This congress, that traditionally gathers around 700 participants, from Croatia and from abroad, is considered not only the most visited gynecological meeting in the Republic of Croatia, but also one of the most significant ones in the region.

We are sure that both the 14th Croatian Congress on Gynecological Endocrinology, Human Reproduction and Menopause, and the 7th Congress of the Croatian Society of Clinical Embryologists with international participation, are going to offer the opportunity to learning about the current topics, attractive to every participant.

This congress will provide exceptional lecturers, world experts as well as experts from the region. We have selected topics for exciting discussions, debates, and workshops. We will also propose more clinical guidelines.

Therefore, we invite as many of you possible to register for this exceptional double congress in a timely fashion, we are sure that we will achieve your satisfaction with various professional activities and social events.

Please note that making such an important congress happen, with a admirable scientific and social program, is only possible with your sponsorship.

We thank you in advance and in the hope of once again achieving a pleasant cooperation, we send you our best regards!
